On the Occasion of Children's Day, the entire Kasiga family came together to wish our dear children. We feel blessed to have our precious young learners as part of the small evergrowing family.

A small heartfelt message for our children:

Your smile, your laughter, your antics, your gags, interlace the silhouette of Kasiga; we relive our yesterday through you; for in every adult there dwells the child that was, and in every child there lies the adult that will be. A special thanks to all of you for rekindling the spirit of childhood in our lives!
